

I. What does that mean in “English”?

The macro `\tdocinEN` and its starred version are useless for English speakers because they have the following effects.

Cool and top stand for `\tdocinEN*{cool}` and `\tdocinEN{top}`.

Cool and top stand for “cool” and “top” in English.

The macro `\tdocinEN` and its starred version are based on `\tdocquote` : for example, “semantic” is obtained via `\tdocquote{semantic}`.

Note.

As the text “in English” is translated into the language detected by `tutodoc`, the macro `\tdocinEN` and its starred version become useful for non-English speakers.

Important.

For documents written in a language other than English, if one of the packages `babel` and `polyglossia` is loaded, then, in “the quoted content”, the English linguistic rules are respected.
